

William Yang – Front Office/F and B training- Aug 2012

A 2nd yr student who has undertaken internships in restaurant, kitchen and front office as asst night auditor.

He is a friendly, outgoing person who is positive, energetic and responsible, a good team player who always strives to achieve high standards in his work.

He is available for 6 months from August 2012 and speaks very good English.

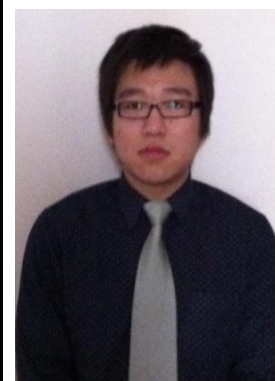

Kim Zhou –F and B or Rooms training- Aug 2012

A 2nd yr student who has undertaken a 12 month kitchen internship as well as a shorter time as a waiter in the banqueting department. He has also extensive experience from working in his family restaurant in his home country.

A friendly, helpful and motivated person, a team player who always wants to do his best and tackles any task with a positive energy.

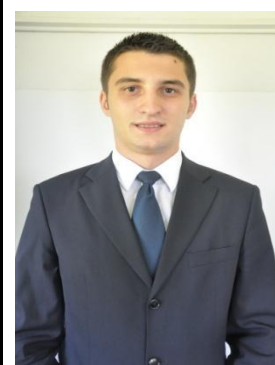

He is available for 6 months from August 2012 and speaks good English.

Lei Yang– Food and Beverage- May 2012

Lei is a post graduate with a BA in Hotel and Event management. He has undertaken an internship in restaurant and reception at the First World Hotel in Genting Highland, Malaysia and also one as reception, housekeeping and guest relations at Hotel Central, Kreins, Switzerland.

A friendly, outgoing personality with lots of energy and enthusiasm, who wishes to build upon his experience to date. He speaks very good English .

Andrey Brasoveanu – Front Office training- June 2012

Andrey is a post graduate, seeking a 12 month internship in Front Office with a view to obtaining full time employment following his internship, as he is Romanian.

Currently trainee night auditor at a 4* hotel in Switzerland, he also has F and B experience from Romania and Greece.

A pleasant, productive and positive person , an able team leader who is always willing to help , he is both punctual and reliable and speaks very good English.

Dan Liviu – Cross training or Front Office – 12 months July 2012

Dan is a mature post graduate with a background in law and is undertaking an intensive 6 month management course in hospitality and tourism.

A friendly, hard working and reliable person, he is both committed to his task and determined to succeed in his new career and will give of his best to any job he is given.

He speaks fluent English and being Romanian can work for 12 months

Sarah Ghawi – Front Office – 6 months – Aug/Sept 2012

A graduate with a degree in International Hotel Management/Marketing who has completed internships in both rooms division and kitchen and who is seeking to further her career by working in the UK.

A spontaneous, charismatic person who loves dealing with people, she is responsible, pays attention to detail and sets herself high standards of achievement. She speaks fluent English.